

Feerick Center Awards

PHOTO BY BEN ASEN

FORDHAM UNIVERSITY School of Law's Feerick Center for Social Justice celebrated its 10th anniversary as well as the 80th birthday of its founder, John Feerick, on Monday at Mutual of America. Awards were given for careers dedicated to service. From left, Fordham Law Dean Matthew Diller, joins Maria Imperial, the CEO of YWCA White Plains & Central Westchester and former executive director of the City Bar Justice

Center, who received a Champion of Justice Award; former Chief Judge Jonathan Lippman, of counsel at Latham & Watkins, who received the George J. Mitchell Lifetime Public Service Award; John Feerick, Judith Livingston and Thomas Moore, partners at Kramer, Dillof, Livingston & Moore, who each received a Spirit of Hope Award; Manhattan solo Roland Acevedo, former vice chair of Prisoners' Legal Services of New York, who received a Champion of Justice Award; James J. Roth, senior executive vice president and general counsel of Mutual of America, who received a Spirit of Service Award; and Fordham University president Joseph McShane, S.J.